

Seeds of Faith for Women
Journey to the Well by Diana Wallis Taylor

What are your overall impressions of the book? Compared with her other book Martha?

What parts of the book did you like?

Which characters did you like/not like and/or thought were believable?

What did you think about her story? Is this how you thought about the Woman at the Well?

What did you think about the relationship of Jew and Samaritan? Did it give you more understanding between them?

What did you think about the other stories that were woven in? The 10 lepers? The good Samaritan?

What did you think about the interaction of Marah and Jesus?

What other things did you learn about the era or those times?

What did you think about the ending of the book? and the epilogue with Rueben and Tema?

Would you recommend this book?